expulsion of the speakers and their audience. Among the speakers were Editor Samuels, of the archist organ "Commonweal"; Louise Michel and several other English and foreign Anarchist The audience was small, but noisy. Editor Samuels got well into a fervid panegyric on Vaillant, Ravachol, Henry and other "martyrs" when the storm arose. Several men in the crowd who were not Anarchists protested against this style of oratory, and they were quickly joined by others, the Anarchists meanwhile denouncing those who had interrupted the speakers. There was a lull for a few minutes, and Mr. Samuels resumed his remarks with even more warmth than before, when suddenly there was a howl of indignation and a rush for the platform.

The Anarchists fought hard to protect the speaker and the police tried to restore order, but were thrust aside by the angry anti-Anarchists, and the Anarchists were forced to run out of the park for their lives, pursued by the mob. Samuels succeeded in getting away unhurt, but hundreds of his Anarchist auditors had their clothing torn from their backs, and many of them received cuts and bruises that they will carry for some time to come. All of the Anarchist flags, ban-Ars, etc., were taken possession of by the police. The Socialist meeting in Hyde Park was addressed by Commoner Keir Hardie and the Socialist leader, William Morris. The growth of trades-union hostility to the ship-owners, who are accused by the workmen of gradually excluding union men and importing non-union labor, culminated in a large massmeeting at the gates of the London docks at 6:30 this morning. The meeting was addressed by Ben Tillett and other labor leaders. The meeting was orderly.

Berlin, May 1.—The police have been wonder fully slert to-day in carrying out the May Day programme of the authorities, and, consequently, there have been no notable disturbances. An Anarchist meeting was held in the Ressource Rooms, where a strong detail of police was assigned. One of the speakers declared that workingmen must be prepared to fight for their rights with staffs and rifles in hand. The officer in command of the police interrupted the speaker and asked the audience to disperse quietly, and not to form knots in the streets. The crowd dis-

Vienna, May 1.—A heavy fall of rain prevailed during the entire morning, but it had no effect whatever in preventing enormous crowds from gathering at the various places where mass-meetings had been called. The meetings were mostly attended by strikers, and, although speakers and auditors alike were drenched to the skin, their enthusiasm remained at white heat. At all the meetings resolutions were passed favoring an extension of the franchise, an eight-hour day and cessation of all work on Sunday.

The police dispersed two meetings here owing The police dispersed two meetings here owing to the violent character of the speeches. By 3 eclock in the afternoon most of the gatherings had dispersed, and the city was comparatively quiet. Altogether there were few disturbances, none of which assumed the proportions of a riot. Forty workmen assembled in the Frater this afternoon for the purpose of holding a massimeeting, but just as the speaking was started it began to rain heavily and the meeting dispersed.

In the provinces everything was quiet through-

PATHER'S HOUSE CLOSED TO HER. William de Wagstaffe, who is well known in some parts of the city as "Baron" de Wagstaffe, has parts of the city as "Baron" de Wagstaffe, has married Miss Evelyn O'Brien, a niece and adopted daughter of H. P. Kingsland, of No. 162 East Nine-teenth-st., a wealthy son of ex-Mayor Kingsland. The marriage was a runaway affair, as De Wag-staffe did not appear to come up to Mr. and Mrs. Kingsland's idea of a son-in-law. De Wagstaffe and Miss O'Brien met in the latter part of March at the San Marco Hotel, in St. Augustine, Fia., where Mr. and Mrs. Kingsland and their niece were staying. A week later the couple cloped, and were married on March 27 by the Rev. Dr. Trappler, rector of St. Michael's Church, Charleston, S. C. Early in April the couple came to this city and stayed at the Bartholds until a week ago, when they moved to the Gerlach, where they were until yesterday. The "Baron" and his bride have made several ineffectual attempts to see Mr. and Mrs. Kingsland, who re-fuse to let Mrs. De Wagstaffe have her clothing and jewelry. The servants have been instructed to refuse them admittance.

He was astonished, he said, "at the extraordinary attitude taken by the Kingsiands." He said after his wife had made several ansuccessful calls for her clothing and jewels he had written to them and intimated that he would talk legal action to secure the effects. Mrs. de Wagstaffe is a pretty, dark-haired, gray-eyed woman of about twenty-two years. De Wagstaffe did not really have any plans, but thought he would start a "society journal" at Narragansett Pier this summer. No one would be seen last night at the home of the Kingslands. It was said last night at the Gerlach that the "Baron" and his wife had left the hotel.

Murphy's all-around work was really remarkable, and the little man from Yale has become pronounced favorite, being applauded every time he goes to the bat. The prediction made by a Yale alumnus that in Murphy New-York would see the "biggrest little man" she ever saw has been verified. The sensational work of the season was done by Colonel Ruppert's Falsetto-Peorl Thorne colt, who is labelled with the name of Counter Tenor. The colt is a rangy chestnot, standing close to 15.2, with a narrow blaze in his face. It is action is rapid and frictionless. Counter Tenor is an exception to the average of Falsetto's produce, as he is one of the best feeders in the stable. Young Arion attempted to work with him, but it was only an attempt, as the youngster was far too speedy for him. He ran the first eighth in Hz, seconds, the quarter in 22 seconds, the hilf-mile in 484, seconds, and he inished the five-eighths in 1.80%, pulling up. The work was startlingly fast, and caused some of the persons present to draw long faces when it was over. It will be in order new to hear of some trials that will excel Counter Tenor's great work. The reports are likely to come from Brighton Beach and Monmouth Park. Racegoers, who beton trials, however, can rest assured that Colonel Ruppert's colt ran his trial fairly, as the slowest time made by any of the watches for the haif-mile was 49 seconds.

Raceland pleased everybody present by his lusty, healthful appearance and caused Issue Laboid to exclaim: 'He is the best-looking horse on, the track.' There was a great deal of good work by horses from nearly every stable at the track. The time of nearly all the work was only at the average of strong trials without urgins.

The Coney Island Jockey Club Executive Committee decided that the only persons who are members of their race meetings are the stewards and officials, all others will have to pay at the gate. The Jockey Club proposed that its numbers should be admitted to all racetracks that raced under their auspices free of charge.

It is likely that the betting ring at the Coney Island Jockey Club track will be under the same management as herefore.

MONMOUTH PARK CONFESSES JUDGMENT. Freehold, N. J., May 1 (Special).-The Monmouth Park Racing Association to-day, at this place, confessed judgment to L. R. Van Keuren, superintendent of the grounds, in the sum of $4,578 for personal services and wages to men employed by him in and around the track. This is a great surprise to the Township Committee of Eatontown, and has put them at a disadvantage in the collection of some $4,699 taxes, $1,899 of which must be paid back to L. O. Appleby, a member of the Racing Association Hourd, who advanced this sum of money to take up some notes of the Township Committee. This move on the part of Van Keuren has precipitated action on the part of the Township Committee, who will to-morrow advertise the personal property of the association for sale. James Steen, the township counsel, has prepared the papers in the case, and will push the matter to a sale or settlement. sonal services and wages to men employed by him

VILLAGE FARM'S LATEST FAST TEAM. Buffalo, May 1.—Village Farm will be represented on the turf by another fast team this season. In all probability the pair will be sent an exhibition in the new Criminal Courts Building. Owing to the arrangements for the summer exhibition. Showery weather, with thunderstorms in the afternoon or evening, excompanied by lower temperature, is likely.

mile at the Buffalo Grand Circuit meeting. The team will be composed of Pansy, 2:17%, and Cora. 2:23, both by Hamiin's Almont; and Geers will soon begin to drive them double. Talking to Mr. Hamiin yesterday, Geers sa.d. "I think the pair can go as fast as anybody's team. Pansy and Cora are such good actors that I have no fear of any pair. Mr. Hamiin then said he would fit the pair for a few fast miless and perhaps a race or two. They will be the seventh great team of trotters that Village Farm has brought out within the last few years. Fantasy is doing fine work this spring. "We will be content if Fantasy beats the 2:05%, that Directum made last year," said Mr. Hamiin. "People do not realize what a phenomenal performance that was for a four-year-old. There was a much greater cry when Maud S. trotted in 2:08%. Yet it was not so fast, and she was an older horse." mile at the Buffalo Grand Circuit meeting. The DEATH OF A VALUABLE STALLION. Peoria, Ill., May 1.-Blue Blood, 2:23%, the bay stallion belonging to C. T. Luthy, of this city, died yesterday afternoon at Mr. Luthy's stock farm near Washington. Dine Blood was six years of age and was valued at more than $15,000.

ATHLETES GETTING READY.

W. D. Day, the five-mile champion runner of America, is taking good care of himself and has been running some fast trials in preparation for the special three-mile run that will be given by the New Jersey Athletic Club at its grounds on May 30. Champion Day will start from scratch in this race and attempt to break his own American record of 14 minutes and 39 seconds; made on Decoration Day, 1899. Invitations have been sent to Orton and 1830. Invitations have been sent to Orton and 'Tommy' Conness, and it is strongly hinted by the followers of these two runners that they will toe the mark on May 20 and give Day a great race.

The athletic and bieyele matches that are to be held by the New-Jersey Athletic Club at its Decoration Day carmival promise to be interesting. Gold me labs will be given to first men, silver medals to second and bronze medals to third in each of the following contests: 75-yard dash on turf, 220-yard dash, 3-mile run, 880-yard run, 220-yard hurdie, running high jump, handicap, limit 6 inches; 1-mile walk, all handicap, 890-yard novice run, invitation relay team race, open to colleges only; six teams four men, each man to run one-quarter mile; 2-mile bicycle race and 1-mile bicycle race, both handicap, open to Class A riders only.

THE SEASON AT CREEDMOOR BEGUN. The shooting season of ab4 opened yesterday at Creedmoor under the personal supervision of Brigadier-General B. M. Whitlock, assisted by Major D. Crocker, inspector of rifle practice, 1st Brigade staff. A detachment of the 9th Regiment, composed of Companies C, H and D, under the command of Lieutenant-Colonel Rand, occupied the range. The conditions were favorable, with a clear day and light wind in the morning. One hundred and thirty-five men practised, of which 126 qualified in the second class. The shooting season of 1894 opened yesterday at

WON BY THE HARVARD SOPHOMORE CREW Cambridge, Mass., May 1 (Special).-The second of the class crew races was rowed this afternoon up-stream, over the one-mile course. The sopho-mores won easily by two lengths, rowing in splen-did form. The seniors were second and the juniors last, for the freshman crew were overtrained and did not enter. The time of the winning crew was 5 min. 33 sec.

INTERNATIONAL BIMETALLISM.

HENRY W. CANNON'S LETTER OF REGRET TO THE LEAGUE WHICH MEETS IN LON-DON TO-DAY.

The Bimetallic League meets in London to-day. Henry W. Cannon, president of the Chase National Bank, was invited to be present as the delegate from the United States. The following letter from Mr. Cannon will be read at the League meeting:

My Dear Sir: I regret that business engagements will prevent my accepting the kind invication of your council to participate in the demonstration and conference on international bimetallism to be held it the Mansion House, London, on the second sreximo.

The proceedings of your meeting will excite great interest throughout the civilized world. It is, I believe, now generally conceded that the responsibility for the solution of the silver problem rests upon the people of Great Britain, and the other nations look to our Government to settle the status of silver as a money metal and to decide whether or not the minus of the various nations shall again not the minus of the various nations shall again be opened to its colnage, or whether the demonstration of the white metal shall be complete and continuous.

international conferences and monetary commissions, composed of the most learned and distinguished men in monetary science throughout the world, have met during the last few years and discussed the statistics of trade and of the precious metals. Unquestionably, the intelligent and exhaustive inquiries which have been made by the various conferences and commissions have been of great service in increasing the knowledge of the people of the world as to the uses of metallic money, and as to the relation of gold to silver. Unfortunately however, no practical result so far is the use of gold and silver as money upon a common international basis, has been reached, and he determination of tireat Britain to continue a old monometallic nation has done much to distinge those who believe that it is for the best treasts of mankind to use both gold and silver as all legal-tender money at a common ratio, and the life States has been compelled to close its mints.

ITS BUSINESS PRONOUNCED ILLEGAL.

PROCEEDINGS AGAINST OFFICERS OF THE AT-LANTIC MUTUAL BENEFIT SOCIETY.

Charles S. Hayes, a lawyer in the Potter Building, acting on the advice of James F. Pierce, Superin-tendent of the State Insurance Department, yesterday laid before the District-Attorney a complaint against Edward A. Smith, president of the Atlantic Mutual Benefit Society, and Major John Hopper, its agent. The organization was incorporated in West Virginia, and Superintendent Pierce decided that its business here was in violation of the State Insurance law. He urged Mr. Hayes to bring the case to the attention of the District-Attorney.

Mr. Hayes is counsel for Charles C. Yutte, a manufacturer of woollens, of No. 454 Broadway. who took out a certificate in the society. He was to pay assessments of $10 every month or less, and to pay assessments of $10 every month or less, and to receive $500 at the end of the year. Mr. Yutte paid several assessments and noticed that when his checks were returned to him by his bank they bore numerous indorsements. The society had no bank account, its office address was first given as No. I Broadway, and then as Aldrich Court, but at neither place was the president, Mr. Smith, known, Major Hopper, who seemed responsible for most of the society's prosperity, had desk room in Aldrich Court. Mr. Yutte stopped payment on his last check, and called in his lawyer. Mr. Hayes looked up the company, and then wrote to Mr. Pierce about it.

up the company, and then wrote to Mr. Pierce about it.

Mrs. Helen E. Murray, who manages a loan association in the Lincoln Building, Union Square, has invested $700 in the society, and she, too, has become uneasy about her money.

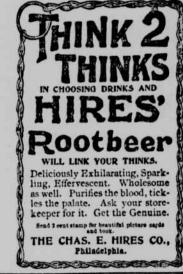

George Bates is given as the name of the secretary, and Joseph Coffin as that of the auditor. Maicolm Niven, a lawyer, was vice-president, but resigned on learning that the business was not favored by the Insurance Department. Mr. Smith's address is incorrectly given in the directory as No. 105 East Elghteenth-st. Dr. Edward A. Smith lives there, but he is president of no company in Aldrich Court. Major Hopper is a member of the Knickerhocker Whist Club. He could not be found last night.
